HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ARE STUDYING BANKING

OAKLAND, Cal., March 1.—With and at the same time imparting a the view of inculcating habits of thrift; knowledge of banking the Oakland high school savings bank has been started in the institution here. The pupils fill all the official positions of the bank, which is conducted in miniature, along the most accepted lines of modern banking.

A dollar starts a savings account.

Each afternoon, before the large, downtown banks close for the day, the deposits in the school bank are taken to one of the larger institutions. The school bank is conducted as a branch of the Farmers' and Merchants' Savings Bank of Oakland.

The school bank's cashier is Adde Walker, who has as her assistants Edwin De Gola and Claire Wenk. The institution is under the direction of A. C. Reed, head of the commercial department of the school. The system has been in operation only a short time and already has deposits of several hundred dollars.

ELIMINATE FOOD PRICE PROBE APPROPRIATION
WASHINGTON, March 1.—The senate appropriation committee eliminated the house four hundred thousand dollar food investigation fund from the sundry civil service bill. They pleaded economy.

P.H.S. GIRLS WILL MEET SILVERTON

Basketball Team Accepts Challenge and Will Play Game on Way home From Eugene.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, March 2.—The girls' basketball team of Pendleton arrived in Eugene last evening, enthusiastic for their state championship game with the Oakland high school team in the men's gymnasium tonight. Immediately on their arrival they announced that they had accepted the challenge of Silverton to a game of basketball and would play the game with Silverton while on the trip in the valley on some neutral floor to be selected later. Interest in the girls' state championship contest is at high pitch and the stage is all set for the game. The officials announced were Miss Campbell, women's physical director of Oregon Agricultural College, referee, and Miss Harriet Thompson, of the university, umpire.

The game will start immediately after the final game of the City League, which starts at 7:30 as a curtain raiser. Following the game, the Oakland and Pendleton girls will be the guests of the students at an informal dance.

The teams will line up as follows: Pendleton—Edith Lang, center; Vera Temple, Grace Russ, forwards; Helen Nelson, Thelma Thompson, guards.

Oakland—Birdie Eastley, center; Ethel Hall, Alice Eastley, forwards; Anna McMabb, Marie Chenoweth, guards.

Substitutes—Veva Cook, Alta Mentzer, Doris Chestnut and Leta Acree for Pendleton; Agnes Hogan for Oakland.
